Unauthorised entry prohibited

Entry to Murray Falls, as shown on the map and marked by these symbols, is prohibited without a permit or written approval.

Natural hazards including sheer cliffs, slippery rocks, submerged rocks and water of variable depths have caused serious injuries and deaths.

Remain behind the barrier and on formed tracks at all times.

Contravention of a requirement of a regulatory notice is an offence under the Nature Conservation Act 1992.

Maximum penalty: 80 penalty units. On-the-spot fines apply.
