

Special management area (controlled action)

A special management area (controlled action) has been declared over part of D'Aguilar National Park as shown on the map.

This area is being managed to ensure the maintenance of natural and cultural values.

The continuation of an existing use of the area may be allowed in accordance with this special management area.

The continuing use of this area for foliage harvesting may be permitted, subject to ongoing monitoring.

Further information is available at www.npsr.qld.gov.au

