

DANGER

GEFAHR
危険

Rocks are slippery when wet

Rain, even light showers and mist, can make the rocks very slippery.

Water can seep for days after rain creating slimy patches. You could lose your footing and suffer serious injury or perhaps fall to your death.

Never climb if the summit route is likely to become wet.

Be aware! Rescues have had to be abandoned due to bad weather and poor visibility. Please don't put rescuers in peril.

Check for weather updates: www.bom.gov.au

