

Stay safe around campfires

Campfires covered with sand or dirt retain their heat and can cause serious burns. Most victims are kids aged 2½ on average.

Prevent campfire burns:

- Never leave a campfire unattended.
- Always put the fire out with water overnight or when you leave your campsite.
- Never use sand or dirt to cover a campfire.
- Treat any burns immediately with cool, running water then seek urgent medical help.

For more information, visit www.kidsafeqld.com.au or www.fire.qld.gov.au.

X

X

Si4570

Great state. Great opportunity.