Welcome to David Fleay Wildlife Park

Nestled in the heart of Burleigh Heads on the Gold Coast, David Fleay’s is the place to meet the special resident wildlife of some of Queensland’s most iconic natural habitats—a wildlife park with a difference!

Wander along a network of boardwalks and paths, winding through tranquil wetlands, rainforest and open eucalypt forest in search of koalas, cassowaries, dingos, crocodiles and more. Visit the Nocturnal house to get up close with some of Australia’s rarely seen creatures of the night, such as mahogany gliders, greater bilbies and tiny Julia Creek dunnarts. Be entertained by Wally, our playful platypus, at the only platypus display on the Gold Coast.

Explore the park at your own pace or join a dedicated Park Ranger at one or more of the daily shows. Reconnect with nature and the history of this land through their stories, as animals swoop, jump, slither and glide around you.

Greetings greetings great many friends to Kombumerri country. Please walk gently within Kombumerri country. Ranger Clinton—on behalf of the Kombumerri Aboriginal people.

The man behind the park

Established in 1952, this park was founded by world-renowned naturalist Dr David Fleay. Among his many achievements, David Fleay was the first to successfully breed platypus, wedge-tailed eagles and powerful owls in captivity. Ahead of his time, Fleay insisted that park animals should be kept in as natural a habitat as possible.

“It’s a place where the animals are kept in conditions as close as possible to the natural environment, where they can breed freely and be studied.

Dr David Fleay

In the early 1980s, David Fleay sold this park to the Queensland Government to be protected in perpetuity as a natural Australian habitat. His legacy lives on here today—the natural enclosures reflect his philosophy and the park continues his work of research, breeding and education.

More than a wildlife park

David Fleay Wildlife Park is unique. As the only Queensland Government owned and operated wildlife park, you will discover not only our Australian wildlife but learn about their habitats in Queensland’s national parks. Home to many endangered wildlife, behind the scenes we also rehabilitate and release (where possible) injured and orphaned animals and we capture breed species like the vulnerable Richmond birdwing butterfly. Conservation and education about Australia’s threatened species is at the heart of what we do.
