Jowarra Section
Mooloolah River National Park
Tracks that pass through wet heathland are prone to water inundation from January to June—especially during the summer months. Drier winter months are best for walking.